

Strengthening First Nations land stewardship across British Columbia

BCALMA supports BC First Nations in land stewardship grounded in respect, reciprocity, and responsibility - bringing together Indigenous law, governance, and technical practice to protect lands, waters, and community wellbeing.

Apply or Renew Your Membership Today

Connect with Us

www.bcalma.ca

Leading with support
Building capacity
Strengthening land stewardship

Services & Benefits

BCALMA provides essential resources and support for First Nations Land Management, empowering communities through knowledge sharing and professional development.

Connect with First Nations across BC to share knowledge and best practices.

Participate in regional specialized training, workshops, and mentorship in First Nation land management.

Access mentorship, capacity development, and practical support to strengthen local land governance systems.

Access practical resources and support on land governance, data sovereignty, environmental stewardship, and operational best practices.

Resources

- NALMA's Training & Certification
- NALMA's online Resource Library

Opportunities

Limited Travel Sponsorships are available for BCALMA First Nation Members for BCALMA training and events

BCALMA Membership

Join a community of First Nations Land Managers dedicated to excellence in land management across British Columbia.

Full Membership

Voting Members

First Nations in BC under any land governance authority.

New Membership Applications must include a Band Council Resolution signed by Chief and Council to confirm Council's awareness of the membership.

$300 Annual Fee

Associate Membership

Non-Voting Members

We welcome individuals and organizations that work respectfully with First Nations, ensure safe and inclusive spaces, and demonstrate a strong commitment to reconciliation through partnership and collaboration.

Individual Associate Member

Working in the area of First Nations Land Management in BC

$300 Annual Fee

Organizational Associate Member

Working in the area of First Nations Land Management in BC

$600 Annual Fee

Application Process

